Summary of discloseable pecuniary interests, personal interests and prejudicial interests.

Disclosable pecuniary interests
A 'disclosable pecuniary interest' is an interest of yourself, or of your partner if you are aware of your partner's interest, within the descriptions set out in the table below. "Partner" means a spouse or civil partner, or a person with whom you are living as husband or wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you are civil partners.

| Corporate Tenancies                          | Any tenancy where (to your knowledge) -
(a) the landlord is the Council; and
(b) the tenant is a body in which you or your partner has a beneficial interest. |
| Securities                                   | Any beneficial interest in securities of a body where -
(a) that body (to your knowledge) has a place of business or land in the area of the Borough; and
(b) either –
(i) the total nominal value of the securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or
(ii) if the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which you or your partner has a beneficial interest exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class. |

Personal Interests
You have a personal interest in any business of the authority where it relates to or is likely to affect -
(a) any body of which you are in a position of general control or management and to which you are appointed or nominated by your authority;
(b) any body -
(i) exercising functions of a public nature;
(ii) directed to charitable purposes; or
(iii) one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union), of which you are in a position of general control or management;
(c) the interests of any person from whom you have received a gift or hospitality with an estimated value of at least £25.

Prejudicial Interests
Where you have a personal interest you also have a prejudicial interest in that business where the interest is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest and where that business -
(a) Affects your financial position or the financial position of a person or body described above; or
(b) Relates to the determining of any approval, consent, licence, permission or registration in relation to you or any person or body described above.

MEMBERS ARE ADVISED TO REFER TO THE FULL DESCRIPTIONS CONTAINED IN THE COUNCIL’S CODE OF CONDUCT ADOPTED ON 25TH JULY 2012.
